Question	Slide #	Board Use
When confronted with a suspected fake ID, you should confiscate it.
All patrons must vacate a licensed premise by 2:30am (retail) and/or 3:30am (clubs)
When Checking ID's servers should hold the ID until completion of the carding process.
You may continue to serve alcohol to a visibly intoxicated patron as long as they are not driving.
Given equal variables, women generally will have higher blood alcohol concentrations than males.
An establishment can lose its liquor license if a minor consumes alcohol on the premises.
Generally, healthy people metabolize alcohol at a fairly consistent rate.
According to the Liquor Code, an expired photo ID is considered an acceptable form of ID.
A 24 year old husband is considered proper supervision for his 20 year old wife.
When not part of a school-endorsed function, the proper ratio for supervising minors is one supervisor per 20 minors except in cities of the first class (Philadelphia) where it is one (1) supervisor per 5 minors.
Visible intoxication is determined by a patron's behavior and appearance.
A person's BAC can only be determined by blood, breath, or urine tests.
The PLCB is the agency responsible for enforcing the Liquor Code.
When monitoring the number of drinks consumed by a guest, a mixed drink containing two shots should be counted as more than one standard drink.
Any type or amount of food in the stomach helps slow down the absorption rate of alcohol into the bloodstream.
A patron with high tolerance can be considered legally intoxicated for driving even if the employee sees no visible signs of impairment.
The licensee and/or employee can be sued for any death, injury, or damage caused by a minor or a VIP who was served alcohol.
When using a transaction scanning device to check ID, there is no need to compare the ID with the customer.
Records such as Incident Documentation Forms and Proof of Carding should be kept for 2 years.
Only the licensee and not the server can be charged criminally for serving a minor.
Which of the following is not considered a valid ID to purchase alcohol in Pennsylvania?
Which of the following has the highest amount of alcohol?
Which of the following best helps lower a person's BAC?
If a guest permits a minor to drink alcohol at a licensed establishment, who is responsible administratively under the Liquor Code?
