Mr. Marcus indicated that he was submitting a letter to Governor Corbett and read the following statement:

Dear Governor Corbett,

It has been a privilege to serve the Commonwealth as a Member of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. My term expires May 20, 2014. After six and a half years of service, it is time for me to move on to other endeavors. I am writing to inform you that I do not wish to be considered for nomination to another term.

I am grateful to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for giving me this opportunity and to Senate President Pro Tempore Scarnati for his invaluable advice and counsel throughout my tenure. I have aspired to honorably serve the people of Pennsylvania, and the good people of this agency.

In order to ensure the continued orderly operation of this important state agency, I will continue to serve up to an additional six months, as allowed by law until my successor is duly appointed and confirmed.

Wishing you the very best as you discharge these and all your important duties for the Commonwealth, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Robert Marcus, Esquire
